

Trustee

What's in it for me

- A chance to be closely involved in U3AC and to work collaboratively with others to shape the services it delivers.
- The scope to use your skills and experience to secure U3AC's future.
- The opportunity to meet members and to listen to their views.

Commitment

An average of approximately 7 hours a month for non-Officer roles.

What's involved

- Trustees prepare for and participate in approximately 6 Council meetings a year.
- Some trustees are appointed Officers and assume particular responsibilities, for example as Treasurer or Director of Studies for Courses or for Lectures.
- Trustees serve on Committees, such as the Finance Committee, and/or on a working party set up with a particular remit.

Quote from a current trustee

U3AC is run by members for members and, having enjoyed many of its services over the years, I was happy to use my skills and experience (as a CEO of a charity) to give something back to U3AC.
